Community Council Funding

Appeal: Askamore Community Council is now at the end of its first year of fundraising which allowed the Council to keep up repayments on a loan of just over €50,000. The debt is now approximately €38,000, which is due to the support received locally through people like yourselves agreeing to pay €10 monthly. Askamore Community Council would like to encourage you to please continue this commitment for one more year, starting from March 2014. Some of you have already committed to the second year and we are extremely grateful for this commitment to our work for the local community. There is a lot of work ongoing in the Community Centre and there are further projects, which are being investigated for their value to the community. There is a funding commitment needed to keep the work of the Council going and the work to date could not have happened with your help. If you would like to make a contribution of any type, please contact a Community Council member.
